Teach your family to be early adopters of water, wind and sky.

Think some people just seem born to the water, to dance in the waves, to breathe in the sky? There's no such thing. Like all the best wisdom, these things are acquired.

But there is a place where they come more naturally. Where the purity of the sand and the amazing tint of the water are perfectly mixed to create a childlike wonder. Welcome to Destin-Fort Walton Beach, Florida.

Essential gear:
playfulness, curiosity
and a sense of
adventure.

But don't worry. You can pick all those up here.

There's something we've learned about getting families out on the water. The parents learn to detach and let their kids go and grow. And the children develop sides they never knew they had. Like courage. Independence. Self-confidence.

And something else: an appreciation of the natural world, its promise and how caring for its future gives families a passion they can share together.

The harbor

Destin-Fort Walton Beach, Florida, comes from humble beginnings. Today considered one of the world’s premier beach vacation destinations, the area started as a small fishing village built around what is now known as the Destin Harbor. However, no matter how large we grow, the harbor will always be the backbone of this community.

Where parent and child can become captain and mate.

Fleet means family.

What started as a group of fishermen casting close to the shore with nets from small boats in the mid 19th century has evolved into what is now the country’s largest charter fishing fleet. Today, the fleet is operated by men and women tracing their lineage in the area back more than 150 years. In the beginning, cooperation and unity were essential to the fleet’s survival, and to this day, that sense of community continues both in the harbor and throughout the entire area.

To see the bond shared among the members of our fleet, just watch them leave the harbor in the morning. The fleet heads for the Gulf of Mexico together and stops to gather bait for the day before heading off to their own “lucky spot.” It’s a ritual that reminds us what this community stands for – where we came from, where we’re going – and how we’re stronger together.

The heart of the harbor.

The Destin Harbor is the epicenter of our community. It's the hub for almost all the commercial and recreational fishing businesses operating in the area. For many locals, the harbor provides a means to support their families. The harbor is popular among visitors looking for things to do both on and off the water. It's what our community was built on, and it's what helps us thrive today. We can't wait for you to explore everything it has to offer.

The harbor is more than just where our area began; it also provides a livelihood for many of our locals and adventures for our visitors. Fishing, be it for leisure or for business, doesn't get any better than in Destin-Fort Walton Beach. While the species might change with the seasons, there's always fish to be caught in and nearby our local waters. The bounty of the Gulf of Mexico is yours to enjoy with fresh, never-frozen

Gulf-to-Table seafood available throughout the area. The fleet works hard to guarantee that our local waters and ecosystems are respected and preserved while still ensuring there's plenty of fresh seafood available in area restaurants and local fish markets.

With mouthwatering waterfront dining, live music, unique shops, evening fireworks and much more, the harbor is the place to be for fun and excitement. Whether you're looking to do a little fishing or just want to get out on the water, the harbor is home to hundreds of rental boats designed for groups of all sizes. If you're interested in doing some sightseeing, including a glimpse of dolphins in their natural habitat, choose from a number of guided boat tours operating out of the Destin Harbor. When it's time to eat, you'll enjoy walking or even boating in between the numerous waterfront restaurants to sample the variety of diverse food, drinks and live music. Uncover unique finds, hidden treasures and fun souvenirs at the different shops that call the harbor home. And stay close to all the action with beautiful accommodations available all along the water. This is only a sample of what the Destin Harbor has to offer; you'll have to explore the rest of it yourself.

Adventure

Teach your family to be early adopters of water, wind and sky.

Fishing from a boat is a great way to experience the incredible outdoor adventures of our area. Hundreds of boats are available for rent throughout the destination, and fishing charters help anglers of any skill level reel in the “big one.”

Teach a man to fish...

Catching the biggest fish of your life doesn’t require a big boat – or any boat. Fishing from The Island Pier is a quick and easy way to reel in your catch of the day. Tarpon weighing more than 100 pounds, tuna, king mackerel, cobia and even sailfish have been caught off the pier. Plus, you’d be hard-pressed to find a better way to watch the sun rise or set than with a pole in hand at the end of the 1,262-foot pier on Okaloosa Island.

The Destin Fishing Rodeo started in 1948 and, to this day, continues to attract people from around the world to Destin-Fort Walton Beach. Playing a major role in giving Destin the distinction of “The World’s Luckiest Fishing Village,” this month-long celebration is the ultimate fishing tournament for saltwater anglers of all ages.

An invasive species in the Gulf of Mexico, the lionfish is a threat to our native fish population. While lionfish have venomous spines that can cause pain and swelling if stung, lionfish filets are safe and delicious. Ordering lionfish in our local restaurants will create a higher demand for them and help reduce their impact on our waters.

Our menu

Featuring flavors fresh from the Gulf of Mexico and inspired by global traditions passed down through generations, dining in Destin-Fort Walton Beach is an experience unlike anywhere else. Waterfront restaurants offer panoramic views as incredible as the food they serve.

Take your taste buds on an adventure.

From the refined elegance of a romantic, candlelit dinner to mouthwatering finger foods paired with a beer list that reads more like a book, dining in Destin-Fort Walton Beach has something for everyone. Whether you're looking for the perfect guys or girls night out, a place for just the two of you, or somewhere the whole family will love, there are a number of excellent restaurants perfect for any occasion.

Explore the numerous restaurants of HarborWalk Village, enjoy the family-friendly atmosphere of the Boardwalk on Okaloosa Island, or sample an array of different flavors in the easily walkable Downtown Fort Walton Beach. Indulge your senses with bustling waterfront restaurants located directly on the beach or quiet spots tucked away from the crowds. Wherever you go, you're sure to find everything from eclectic culinary delights inspired by international cultures to Gulf-fresh seafood you have to taste to believe.

Featuring everything from tried and true to try something new.

Our menu

What makes our area dining experience truly unique is the use of Gulf-to-Table seafood at many local restaurants. Gulf-to-Table means seafood is caught in the Gulf of Mexico and sent directly to local fish markets where it's bought by local restaurants. Gulf-to-Table seafood is never frozen, caught within a few days before it's prepared for consumption, and exhibits a level of flavor unparalleled by seafood caught and shipped in from elsewhere.

Gulf-to-Table isn't just about incredibly fresh flavors; it's about sustainable practices and local empowerment. By definition, seafood is meant to be fresh, never frozen, going from the water to your plate in a matter of days, not months. So the local fishing industry takes only what it needs, leaving a sustainable ecosystem behind for generations. On a local level, seafood is caught by men and women living in our area, sent to local markets, bought by local restaurants and prepared by chefs who live, work and play right here. Pair a Gulf-to-Table meal with a beer from one of our craft breweries for a dining experience that's as local as it gets.

Eat well, and healthy, in Destin-Fort Walton Beach. The area is home to a variety of delicious organic restaurants balancing clean eating and incredible flavor. The Downtown Fort Walton Beach Farmers' Market and their farmers, artisan food vendors and crafters offer an array of locally grown fruits and vegetables as well as handmade items.

You've left the busy schedule of your everyday life behind, and now it's time for you to gather everyone together, around either a table in your vacation rental or a picnic blanket on the beach, and toast to good food, great weather and the people you love most.

If you're looking to get a little more hands-on in your Gulf-to-Table dining experience, look no further than one of the area's many cook-your-catch restaurants. After a long day of fishing the gorgeous emerald-green waters, bring your own personal catch of the day to one of our participating restaurants and let an award-winning chef turn it into a meal you'll never forget.

The beaches

Sand so beautifully different, it even sounds like no other.

Destin-Fort Walton Beach is home to some of the world's most beautiful and unique beaches. Experience sugar-white sand that squeaks with every step you take and glistening emerald-green waters with waves that shine like jewels in the Florida sun.

Our sand is sweet.

It's hard to believe that something as simple as sand could make all the difference in the world when it comes to creating world-renowned beaches. However, to truly appreciate our powdery, sugar-white sand, you have to understand where it comes from. Our beautiful sand started out as part of a mountain thousands of years ago. At the end of the last Ice Age, the world's temperatures rose, ice caps melted and large volumes of water carried by rivers flooded the world's oceans. The rising Apalachicola River, originating in the Appalachian Mountains, carried quartz particles from the mountains down into the Gulf of Mexico and deposited them along our coast. Over time, the sea level rose, and the quartz sand formed the shoreline. Today, our beaches are made up of finely ground, perfectly round quartz crystals that squeak beneath your bare feet with every step.

Beach Flags + Safety

Text “BEACH” to 44144 for daily beach flag updates May through October

FLAG WARNING SYSTEM

Water closed

Water activity is prohibited

High hazard

Knee deep is too deep

Moderate surf/currents

Calm conditions

Dangerous marine life

Absence of flags does not assure safe waters.
Swim at your own risk.

Spend some time exploring our beaches and experience the area’s warm, Southern charm while in Destin-Fort Walton Beach. For many, the unique shimmer of our emerald-green waters is what they remember most about their vacation. How is this historic hue possible? The quartz sand beneath the water reflects the area’s abundant sunlight back through the waves to create this distinct emerald color.

There are a lot of ways to enjoy our beaches and waterways, but the best thing you can do in the water is be safe. Understanding the safety flags before hitting the beach means the only thing you’re worrying about is having a great time.

Getting wet

Water this hue is like getting a personal invitation from nature.

When it comes to planning an unforgettable vacation on our emerald-green waters – dive in. From calm, still waterways perfect for paddleboards and kayaks to the expanse and freedom of the Gulf of Mexico where the largest and fastest boats reign supreme, spending some time on and in the water is the quintessential Florida experience.

Getting wet

Make a splash. Make memories.

Destin-Fort Walton Beach's waters are the perfect setting for outdoor, on-the-water adventures. Explore the calm, still waters of Choctawhatchee Bay on a paddleboard, kayak or canoe. There's no better way to immerse yourself among the pristine, natural surroundings of our area than with a paddle in hand. With several rental companies offering instructional classes to help turn even the most novice paddler into a pro, getting on the water is quick and easy.

A great way to explore the area's gorgeous waterways and coastline, kayaking, canoeing and paddleboarding are also total-body workouts that raise your heart rate and strengthen your muscles. For those looking to stay active during their trip, rapidly paddling the waters of the Santa Rosa Sound or taking your board or kayak on the waves along the coastline is an excellent way to work up a sweat while enjoying the area's beautiful, natural water.

Getting wet

While there's plenty of fun to have on the water, there's an entirely different world to explore below the waves. Scuba diving is one of the best ways to have an underwater adventure in the area. The area's several dive shops offer lessons, certification classes and a variety of excursion itineraries.

Among the pleasures of crystal-clear water is the thrill it lends to activities like snorkeling. Once you've mastered the basics, you'll want to try one of four snorkel reefs, also easily accessible by paddleboard or kayak. If you prefer taking the plunge without training or equipment, SNUBA® is part snorkeling, part scuba diving. Swimmers of all ages can explore underwater worlds with the assistance of a 20-foot-long air line connecting them to a boat on the surface.

Water, water, everywhere, and so much of it to see.

Whether it's fish, rays, manatees or dolphins, the marine life found throughout the area is varied and beautiful. While the vast majority of native wildlife is friendly and harmless, please use caution when interacting with any animals.

The Destin Harbor, HarborWalk Village and marinas of Fort Walton Beach provide ample opportunities for visitors of all ages to get out on the water. Choose from hundreds of rental boats, knowledgeable charter fishing captains and other on-the-water activities like jet skis and kitesurfing.

The wind in your hair, the rhythmic bouncing of the waves and a thrilling ride you'll never forget. While paddling a kayak or canoe is a great way to relax, renting a pontoon boat and cruising up and down the shores is the best way to explore the area's many waterways. Whether it's by a paddle or a motor, go your own speed whenever you're on the water.

New worlds

See what you’ve never seen. Do what you’ve never done.

Adventures in Destin-Fort Walton Beach don’t end when you come in off the shore. Explore sprawling nature preserves, beautiful parks and so much more with a variety of inland activities perfect for satisfying that itch for adventure even off the water.

Get in some outside adventure.

Whether you’re a nature lover or someone who loves to stay active, the natural splendor of our beautiful state parks offers outdoor adventures that will take your breath away. Mattie Kelly Park and Nature Walk in Destin is a 10.13-acre bayou access park with a pier, beach and picnic area. The majority of the land is considered wetlands and cannot be developed, but a raised wooden boardwalk makes the park easily accessible by explorers of all ages. The 30-foot sugar-white sand dunes and sprawling pet-friendly trails of

Henderson Beach State Park are ideal for reconnecting with nature with leisurely hikes or overnight camping. This protected preservation features some of the area’s most intriguing wildlife, including waders and shorebirds (as well as migratory birds in the spring and fall), migrating monarch butterflies, small reptiles, rabbits, bobcats and gopher tortoises. The area is also home to several other parks that are perfect for playing, picnicking, exploring and taking in the pristine, natural surroundings.

The Gulf Islands National Seashore is a protected region of Northwest Florida, as well as sections of Mississippi, made up of several parks and includes mainland areas and parts of islands. Visitors will enjoy the iconic beaches the area is known for, plus picnic tables, areas for bird-watching (maybe you'll even see a bald eagle), a boat launch and other amenities. The Gulf Islands National Seashore is teeming with native wildlife and buffers the mainland from storms. Here you'll find everything from shrimp and fiddler crabs to herons and egrets. Besides being a beautiful slice of the majestic outdoor tapestry found throughout our area, the Gulf Islands National Seashore also serves an important purpose. Without the protection afforded by these barrier islands, the plant and animal habitats found on the mainland coast would be susceptible to the impacts of storms and unable to flourish.

Reaching more than an incredible 30 feet in height, the sand dunes found throughout our area are some of our most impressive and cherished natural wonders. Found on barrier islands and mainland beaches, dunes form by the movement of sand with waves and wind. While beautiful, the sand dunes are protected by law, so please look, but don't touch.

For those looking to take their adventures from the land to the water, several of our area parks feature conveniently located public-access boat ramps. Some boat ramps have restrictions on the size of vessels you can launch there and if they're allowed to have a motor or not.

Tee up your stay

Where to put some swing in your step.

Championship golf in spectacular natural settings has always been a premier attraction of the Destin-Fort Walton Beach region. Ten distinctive courses, including both private clubs and public options, are waiting to challenge you. With favorable weather nearly year-round, every stroke is played against a backdrop of incredible natural beauty. Choose from courses that meander the coastal scenery within feet of the sparkling blue. Don't neglect the options that beckon around the Crestview area to the north, with their subtle changes in elevation and contoured greens. From reunions of friends to parent/child matchups, golf in Destin-Fort Walton Beach is ready to accommodate any skill level, any game. Put some play in your day.

Wherever you play here, hitting a beautiful shot is a given.

In our nature

Discovering some not-so-hidden gems.

Imagine this: You've spent hours in the car getting here, and your gang needs a little break before you hit the beach. Or you've been spending days in the sun and sand, and the family needs a change of pace. Either way, you're primed for one of these natural beauty spots that await behind the Bay or Gulf. All easily accessible, all packed with wonderful surprises.

Sometimes, fun is where you find it. So come find it.

Fred Gannon Rocky Bayou State Park

Just off Route 20 north of the Mid-Bay Bridge, this beauty offers a convenient boat ramp if you want to get your boat in the water before you get to Destin. It's also a terrific place for kayaking or paddleboarding, or for getting some practice in for your kids. Also, a great spot to jet ski well away from the boat traffic further south. The park features some nice, flat hiking trails where you can get acquainted with the local fauna and flora. And if you're camping, the sites have great separation. The restroom facilities are always clean and there's an inviting, modern bathhouse.

White Point

Want some spectacular views of Choctawhatchee Bay that few ever get to see? Since this favorite is located on Eglin Air Force Base, you'll need to get a permit in advance at eglin.isportsman.net. It's well worth it even for a day, and the pass is good for a year. This is a serene place for breaking out a fishing pole, tossing in a kayak or just wading around looking for hermit crabs. Easy access is off Route 293 near Niceville, and there are picnic tables that come in handy after a day in the car. It's wide open and a little on the wild side, so it's easy to claim your own space. There are no amenities, so plan accordingly.

Turkey Creek Park

How about a boardwalk adventure where you can eavesdrop on the local turtles, ducks, wading birds and other wildlife beneath a spreading canopy of cypress trees? The raised wooden Turkey Creek Nature Trail is so broad, it easily accommodates two-way traffic, including strollers. Turkey Creek Park has a pavilion with shaded picnic tables, and if you're tired of car food, a local favorite called Danny's just before the park entrance serves up yummy fried chicken and Southern fare. Take your tubes and inflatables down to dock 6 or 7 and float lazy river style all the way back to dock 1. Absolute heaven.

Blackwater River State Forest: Karick Lake Recreation Area

North of I-10, Blackwater River State Forest calls to your adventurous side. Karick Lake Recreation Area, accessed with a minimal fee, rewards with vistas of unparalleled peacefulness. A total change of pace from the Gulf strand, you'll feel like you've stepped into another world with wide-open spaces framed by forest. While there is no swimming, canoeists and kayakers are welcome, and there is a boat ramp. The lake is well stocked if you have a hankering for some freshwater fishing. And if you're camping, you can pick out a campsite right on the shore of the lake.

Timberlake Trail

Get to know this 8.4-mile loop trail near Eglin Air Force Base. Generally considered a moderately challenging route, it takes an average of 2 hrs and 45 mins to complete. This is a popular trail for hiking, mountain biking and walking, but you can still enjoy some solitude during quieter times of day. Dogs are welcome but must be on a leash.

Gulf Islands National Seashore - Okaloosa Area

Part of the National Park Service, Gulf Islands National Seashore stretches for 160 miles along the northern coast of the Gulf of Mexico, and includes barrier islands, maritime forests, historic forts, bayous and marine habitat. There is an incredible variety of activities for visitors throughout the seashore year-round. The Okaloosa Area anchors the national seashore's eastern end on the Santa Rosa Sound.

Henderson Beach State Park

Enjoy a majestic shoreline anchored by 30-foot snow-white sand dunes where basking in the Florida sun or wading into warm Gulf waters is the order of each and every day. Fishing, a nature trail and 60 campsites connected to the beach via boardwalk are among this park’s featured areas. This special place was established for the preservation and protection of the last remaining coastal scrub area in Destin.

Florida National Scenic Trail

The Florida National Scenic Trail, better known as the Florida Trail, is a federally designated, non-motorized recreation trail that meanders approximately 1,500 miles across some of the most beautiful, unique landscapes in the entire country. With a trailhead conveniently located on SR 285, the Okaloosa County section of the Florida Trail is 32.9 miles long and perfect for hikers looking for a challenge.

Offering fun activities guaranteed to entertain kids of all ages, don't miss the exciting go-kart racing and mini golf of The Track or the thrilling water slides and surfing at Big Kahuna's Water Park.

Make the most of the moments between the moments.

With fun restaurants, a craft brewery, lively bars, eclectic shops, beautiful parks and a large outdoor shopping center, Fort Walton Beach offers plenty to do if you're seeking some adventure off the sand. Downtown Fort Walton Beach features several restaurants and bars that are favorites among locals and visitors alike. The layout of the downtown area makes it convenient to walk from one establishment to the next, making it easy to sample the food and drinks at several different restaurants. Uptown Station is a large outdoor shopping center with more than 60 national and specialty stores and dining options. Besides the terrific shops and delicious dining options you'll find in this center, Uptown Station holds outdoor movie nights, has a pet-friendly park, and is home to the tallest flagpole in Florida standing at an impressive 170 feet. For nature enthusiasts, you'll love the Fort Walton Beach Landing and the Fort Walton Beach Indian Temple Mound, an archaeological site and platform mound built in 850 C.E.

Destin-Fort Walton Beach hosts several annual events that have attracted visitors from around the world for more than 70 years. Whether it's the Destin Fishing Rodeo, the Mattie Kelly Arts Festival or our beloved pirate festival, there's never a shortage of fun, outdoor events.

While many annual events already include live music performances, there's never a shortage of musicians performing covers and original works throughout the area. Found in restaurants, bars and even along the walkways of HarborWalk Village and Downtown Fort Walton Beach, you don't have to look far to find an area musician entertaining a crowd.

From the beaches to the nature preserves, the entire area overflows with inspiring beauty that's reflected in the art, culture and music found here. Whether it's the pieces on display in the Destin-Fort Walton Beach Convention Center or artwork featured in the several area galleries and shops, creative expression here is as abundant as the waves along the shore. If you're an art lover, a trip to Destin-Fort Walton Beach will surely result in an addition to your collection or at least a surge of creative inspiration.

The laid-back, fun atmosphere found throughout the entire area makes this a great destination for families of all sizes and children of all ages. The calm, warm waves along the coast make our beautiful beaches a great place for families to play and grow closer together. However, when you're ready to move away from the beach, there are several indoor and outdoor activities to keep the whole family entertained.

Sail through the air with a number of exciting rides and activities perfect for thrill seekers of all ages. Whether you're strapped into a high-speed ride spinning through the air, swinging in a harness like a trapeze artist, or even sailing through the sky in a parasail high above the emerald-green waves, outdoor adventures are plentiful throughout the area.

Indoor activities range from arcades and adventure zones to educational and interactive museums. The Gulfarium Marine Adventure Park lets you get up close to dolphins, sea lions, turtles, penguins and more. The Air Force Armament Museum features some of our country's most impressive aircraft and the stories behind how they shaped the world. Learn about our area's rich history at the Destin History & Fishing Museum.

The Destin-Fort Walton Beach Airport (VPS) is the area's closest airport and offers nonstop flights to several major cities throughout the United States. With major airlines already flying in and out of VPS, this award-winning airport is always growing and adding routes. When planning your trip, consider the convenience and efficiency of flying directly to VPS instead of another airport and driving into the area.

Your place

A vacation in Destin-Fort Walton Beach isn't about what you'll gain; it's about what you'll lose: your stress, your anxiety, yourself. Relaxing in Destin-Fort Walton Beach isn't limited to lounging on the area's sugar-white sand and floating on its emerald-green waters.

for you. Many of our area accommodations are located on the water along the Gulf of Mexico and offer incredible panoramic views ideal for watching sunrises and sunsets. And, all of our beautiful accommodations are located near popular attractions and are just steps from the water.

Your place

The hotels in Destin-Fort Walton Beach are more than just a place to stay. Discover incredible views, rooms that fit your budget, brand-name chains you can find around the world and charming locations only found here. Enjoy the space and privacy of multiroom units, the convenience of attached restaurants serving fresh Gulf-to-Table seafood, and the excitement of nearby attractions for all ages. Most of all, fall in love with the area’s unique Southern hospitality found in every accommodation.

Unlock new levels of tranquil relaxation with a trip to an area spa. Several of our hotels offer their own spas so you can find rest and relaxation all in one place. However, we also feature independent spa locations throughout the area that offer massages, facials, skin treatments and much more.

Vacation rentals, such as beach homes and condos, offer you more space and amenities than what you’ll find in hotels, such as fully equipped kitchens and large dining rooms. Private rentals are a great option for families or groups interested in taking advantage of their time on vacation to bring everyone together around the table for a home (away from home) cooked meal.

Staying in a private rental means more than incredible views; it means making where you stay an integral part of your vacation. Check the guestbook at any one of our area’s condos or homes to see annual entries from visitors returning to the same property again and again. Spend just one night in a private condo or home and you’ll see why these accommodations are as important to visitors as our beaches.
